Department of Personnel

Order

No. 22/7/96-PER

Read: Government Order No. 22/7/96-PER dated 11-4-2000.

Whereas, Government vide order cited above, declared that S/Shri A. V. Deshpande, S. M. Thorat, A. K. Gawas, Bosco B. F. George, S. M. Dessai and V. U. Borkar, officers in Junior Scale of Goa Police Service, have completed the period of probation satisfactorily.

2. And whereas, it is now, found that the training and Departmental examination of the above six direct recruits of Junior Scale of Goa Police Service on probation of two years was not specified by the Government in consultation with Goa Public Service Commission as required under Rule 16 of Goa Police Service Rules, 1997.

3. And whereas, the training period (second phase of practical/field training) was curtailed from one year to 8 months without approval of the Competent Authority and without consulting Goa Public Service Commission as required under the Goa Police Service Rules, 1997, and consequently none of these six directly recruited officers to the Service can be said to have passed the departmental examination as required under the Service Rules, in consultation with the Goa Public Service Commission.

4. And whereas, the Goa Public Service Commission vide its confidential letter dated 6th January, 2003, has observed that the order dated 11-4-2000 issued by the Government declaring satisfactory completion of the probation period of these officers is not in accordance with the Rules and the same has been issued without its concurrence, and that, as per the provision of Sub-Clause (a) of clause (3) of Article 320 of the Constitution of India, it is mandatory to consult the Commission in respect of any matters connected to the recruitment of the Civil Service and for Civil posts and hence, advised the Government to revoke the order dated 11-4-2000 regarding declaration of completion of probation period satisfactorily by the above mentioned six direct recruit Police Officers immediately, due to non-compliance of the provisions of the Service Rules and the Constitution of India.

5. And, whereas, the Government after considering the aforesaid reference of Goa Public Service Commission and perusal of the records leading to the issuance of the aforesaid order dated 11-4-2000 about declaration of satisfactory completion of probation period by the above mentioned six direct recruit Police Officers, is satisfied that the aforesaid order dated 11-4-2000 requires to be withdrawn in public interest, due to non-compliance of the provisions of the Service Rules and as such, has decided to withdraw the same.

6. Now, therefore, the Government orders,

- (i) revocation of the order dated 11-4-2000 whereunder the probation period of the above mentioned six direct recruit Police Officers was declared to have been satisfactorily completed; and,
- (ii) extension of the probation period of these Officers upto 30th June, 2003, to enable the Government to take up the matter with Goa Public Service Commission.
